

White Out Blows Up At The Summer Skool Party Series!

The Summer Skool Party Series kicked off the first of five summer parties this weekend with a ‘WhiteOut’ themed party. With a jammed house, and almost all patrons dressed in White, Skool got the summer started in style. The night started early as the keeners showed up to stake claim near the bar and hold their ground as the bar packed out throughout the evening. The white martinis were flowing and faces were glowing under the black lights as the night neared its peak with a best dressed competition, the prize was give to Jessica Annabelle whom wore all White articles and looked the damn finest in the crowd. “Friday’s Summer Skool Party Series is way more fun than any other party. You have your friends, tons of fun, great themed décor – it was an escape from reality! I’ll definitely be at the beach party next month with my grass skirt!” Said guest Frank Mcguirk.

The party series website is now up! Hosting pictures from past events, updates, and all the info you could ever need from the provinces number one party series. Check out www.eventsing.com/summerskool for up-to-date party shots from the Ontario’s biggest WhiteOut Party.

The Summer Skool Party Series guarantees loads of action, entertainment and excitement at every stop! Coming up next month, Friday July 7th, Skool will host a beach getaway. From coconut cocktails, hoola dancers, and a Steam Whistle bikini competition, this night will leave its mark on your summer memories.
